

PCQHA
Buckle Bonanza Series
2024

- The PCQHA Buckle Bonanza is an awards program designed to recognize the achievements of entry level exhibitors and horses at selected AQHA approved shows in California. This award is equivalent to a Circuit Champion and is available only to PCQHA/PCQHYA members.
 - Divisions for 2024
 - L1 Amateur and Youth
 - L1 W/T Amateur and Youth
 - L1 Open Horses
- Participant requirements:
 - Youth and Amateur exhibitors must be members of PCQHA or PCQHYA and submit a completed nomination form with an annual payment of $30 to the PCQHA office prior to exhibiting at their first show.
 - The L1 Youth and Amateur fee is by the rider, regardless of the horse
 - Additional L1 Youth & Amateur riders using the same horse must also complete a nomination form and pay the annual $30 fee.
 - Owners of L1 open horses must be members of PCQHA or PCQHYA and submit completed horse nomination form with an annual payment of $30 to the PCQHA office prior to their first show.
 - The L1 Open horse nomination fee is by the horse regardless of the rider.
- Participating Shows for 2024:
 - Back 2 Basics – Rancho Murieta – Jan 31st to Feb 4th
 - Show Me the Money – Burbank – April 10th to 14th
 - The Mother’s Day Circuit – Paso Robles – May 1st to 5th
 - Brookside Bonanza – Elk Grove – TBD
 - Show locations for subsequent years are subject to PCQHA board approval
 - PCQHA cannot guarantee that all classes will be offered at all shows
- Rules
 - Must show to all judges/all days to be eligible
 - Must not receive a DQ from any one judge
 - L1 Amateur & Youth Exhibitors, including W/T and L1 Open horses may only win one buckle per class per year
 - Nomination fees must be paid by the Friday before the first show you intend to enter
 - AQHA rules for calculating circuit awards and breaking ties will be used.
- PCQHA reserves the right to modify the current program as needed.
- Continuation of the program and/or expansion in subsequent years is dependent on continual program support, funding capabilities and subject to annual PCQHA board approval
- A PCQHA representative will be onsite at each show to calculate the winners, present buckles, and answer questions
