

California's Signature 2014 Quarter Horse Events: Summer Celebration & Fall Classic Shows

Written by: Cece Campbell

Release Date: 2014-1-15

Rancho Murrieta & Del Mar, California – Two signature Quarter Horse events are again slated for California exhibitors. The California Summer Celebration QH Show is set for July 3-6, 2014 and California Fall Classic QH Show is scheduled for September 18-21, 2014. Both shows are produced by the California Quarter Horse Association and approved by both the Pacific Coast Quarter Horse Association and the American Quarter Horse Association.

Listening to exhibitor feedback, the Summer Celebration Show has reduced their show days to 4, while keeping the coveted 6 judge format. "This gives exhibitors time to travel to this show and still have the opportunity to earn 6 sets of AQHA/PCQHA points" said PCQHA president, Marc Ristow. Show dates are set for July 3-6, 2014 at the world caliber Murrieta Equestrian Center. This show features a full slate of AQHA classes, including cowhorse, roping and cutting, along with English, Western, Trail, Driving and Jumping. In addition, Ristow was excited to let exhibitors know "that Summer Celebration will again be featuring silver buckles to all sponsored classes and lots of other cool prizes that always attracts top competitors to this show. This year we are confident the 4-day show format will please everyone," said Ristow.

The Fall Classic QH Show is set for September 18-21, 2014 at the outstanding Del Mar Show Park. This legendary show features a 4 day, 6 judge format with a full slate of rail classes for English, Western, Trail, Driving and Jumping. NSBA Futurity classes for Lunge line, Western and English horses bring many different exhibitors to this show. Exhibitor party fun and extraordinary awards are the caveat this show. Due to its unique format, the Fall Classic Show attracts exhibitors from all over the United States. Ristow remarked "The Fall Classic Quarter Horse Show features a different set of classes due to exhibitors needs. Lunge line, Western and English Futurities, plus large rail classes bring exhibitors from all over the nation to compete."

2014 Summer Celebration and Fall Classic sponsorships are now available for Circuit Awards, Arena Sponsorships and more. Early sponsors receive advertising in the full color premium, advertisements and press releases sent to all exhibitors and PCQHA members.
